MY WORD

by DOROTHY LARIMER

Looking forward to the Police- and Firemen's Ball at Golden Gate Fields Turf Club Saturday night, John thinks he may be able to go and sit. I don't want to miss that promised dance with Captain McSheehy. The friendly fellows at the police and fire stations are hoping you'll all be out to help them raise money for their Widows and Orphans fund. See you there?

Candidates in the forthcoming primary election are faced with an overwhelming problem — convincing the voters. Even in Alameda County, they can't hope to get 441,505 people personally. It would cost a non-partisan candidate more than $17,600 to get one piece of first class mail to each voter. A Democratic candidate in this county would have to dig up more than $10,500 for Republican candidates to get a little easier, about $10,500. Political advertising rates are higher than regular advertising and many newspapers (we're like to see the money on the way for ads before they give any news space. In our case, we publicize the candidates if they do something newsworthy in the circulation area. There are many of them, we'd have room for nothing else if we used one-half of the material that is flooding the office these days. But we appreciate their problems in any event.

While we're on the subject of page, how about making your limited stories a little shorter? The page, double-spaced is LONG. Did you put the news in the first paragraph, not at the end of page three . . . we don't read to page three before pitching it in the teletypebasket. Oddly enough, the public relations people submit the worst, longest, most rambling copy that hits this office.

Where are all of Albany's pretty girls? That's what the Jaycees are wondering as they sit with only three applications for Maid of Albany. We know there are dozens of lovelies at Albany High School. How about getting in the contest? The deadline is midnight Friday and the winner enters the Maid of Alameda County contest at the fair in Pleasanton.

THE WATCHMAN at Golden Gate Fields reported to Albany Police May 12 that someone had broken five windows in the field house and taken two rings of keys.

Hans Sorenson Dies Sunday; Funeral Today

Hans C. Sorenson, 53, of 733 Kains, who owned and operated the Color Corner in Albany for 12 years, died at 11:45 p.m. Sunday night at Albany Hospital, where he had been a patient for several weeks.

A native of Laurel, Nebraska, Mr. Sorenson was a member of the Exchange Club of Albany.

Survivors include his wife, Irma L., a clerical worker for the U.S. government at Treasure Island; brother, Alfred of Nebraska, and two sisters, Helen Hassing of Milpitas, and Hazel Motel of Nebraska.

Police Officer Shocked by Headon Crash

Albany Police Officer Ray Terrill, who had the unhappy task of assisting with the removal of bodies of two men who died instantly in Saturday's headon collision on Hoffman Boulevard north of the Albany overpass, commented, "It was the worst I've ever seen. Believe me, I'm through with fast lane driving."

Describing the two Cadillacs "welded together" and the broken condition of the dead drivers' bodies, Terrill said, "I wish the judges who give these drunken drivers a slap on the wrist had been along to see it."

Innocent victim of the crash was John Howard Bass, 52, of Oakland, who was southbound in the fast lane. When the careening auto driven northbound at high speed by Charles Pierson, 65, also of Oakland, came across the divider strip, Bass died because he was in the wrong place at the wrong time.

According to Officer Terrill, a man reported to the California Highway Patrol that the Pierson auto, weaving erratically, was behind him. He saw it "bounce off" the side of the overpass and grew nervous as it came up too closely behind him. Frightened, he pulled off to the side of the road. This was just before the car picked up speed and slammed into the Bass vehicle.

There were no passengers in either car. "It could have been me and my family or you and yours," Officer Terrill said. "No sir, no more fast lane driving for me."

American Legion Preparing for State Convention

Nine delegates and nine alternates will be elected Friday by Albany Post 292, American Legion, to represent the post at the State Convention in Fresno starting June 27.

The election will take place at a meeting at the Albany Veterans Memorial Building, when selection by ballot will be made for three building commissioners. Four are in the race to date: Incumbents Carl Waters, C. Eddie Johnson and Donald Karns and Jack Hamilton.

Hoping to bring home the state championship, the Post Color Guard is drilling weekly. Former winners of second and third spot, the guard will go to Las Vegas for the national competition if it should win first.

Tonight delegates from Albany Post will take the two Boys State delegates to the 10th District Council meeting in San Leandro. The boys will be briefed and instructed on operations of Boys State.

BAPTISTS BELIEVE... THE BIBLE IS GOD'S WORD TO MAN

Baptists believe in a supreme Book, one that presents the laws of God for man to follow. They believe that this Book is from God and that it remains the same from one century to another. Though written long ago, it is just as supreme as when recorded.

It is not a book to be changed by congresses and courts, even these are set up by churches and religious organizations. Nor is it a book for one single class. This Book, of course, is the Bible. Written by many authors, it has sixty-six books that unfold real life stories. Their accuracy is supported by men of today who have explored the civilizations of nations that no longer exist.

Despite the various nationalities and languages of its writers, and the hundreds of years over which they lived, there is a remarkable unity in the Bible that indicates its inspiration by God, a truth that Baptists devoutly believe.

The Bible is a Book of history, telling how man and God have dealt with each other. It is a Book of law setting forth rules by which man must live in his relation both to God and his fellowman. It needs no supplement to bring its message to the twentieth century.

But the Bible's true significance is not measured by its historical accounts nor by its laws alone. The Bible is a Book about life. It tells us how we should live to bring happiness and justice to others and to ourselves.

No other book can match the Bible in telling us about death and how to secure everlasting life after death, or in describing a way for us to escape punishment for our wrong thoughts and actions.

The Bible has a life-giving quality as it centers about the person of Jesus Christ, the Son of God who became a human being to rescue us from sin and the punishment that follows sin. It tells how Jesus died on a cross for his teachings and for the way of life he demonstrated. The Bible shows us the place of death in the scheme of life; it says that death is not the end of things, because it tells how that same Jesus rose from a grave and was seen and recognized by people after death.

The Bible opens to us the opportunity to believe in this same Jesus and to receive life in heaven after the end of our earthly existence.

As our preachers often say, "All the Bible is the Word of God and all of it is for all mankind." Its message means most to those who read it with a desire to practice the way of life it prescribes.

Paul Nathan Translates New Volume

Paul D. Nathan of 509 Pomona, who was head of the English department at Albany High School from 1934-52, has translated the letters of Jose Senan, OFM, now published in a handsome volume by John Howell Books of San Francisco for the Ventura County Historical Society.

Nathan presented a copy of the book, which sells for $15, to the Albany Library. A previous volume, the San Saba papers, which he translated for the Santa Barbara Historical Society, was also presented to the local library.

"The Letters of Jose Senan" concerns Mission San Buenaventura from 1796 to 1923. It is an intimate record of life in one of the most successful of the California missions. Forty-seven of his letters are in the Edward L. Doheny Memorial Library of St. John's Seminary, Camarillo, and to them have been added some 50 others from various sources. They provide an exciting chronicle of early California.

Editing was by Lesley Byrd Simpson. The limited edition was 1,000 copies. The blue cloth cover is printed in gold. The paper and printing are exquisite.

Cynthia Bedford Receives Music Honors

Cynthia Bedford, ninth grade student at Albany High School, and daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Bedford, 1066 Stannage Avenue, is the recipient of two musical honors — a vocal scholarship preferred by the Lions Club of Albany for private instruction in voice under Stephen Lehmer; and an instrumental (violin) scholarship from the Orchestra Club of Albany High under the direction of Ernest Douglas to attend the Cazadero Music Camp in August.

Cynthia began her violin studies with Mrs. Musselman at Cornell School, and she has continued her work at the high school level as a member of the first violin section. She is a private violin pupil of Miss Natalie Biglow of Berkeley.

In the annual Spring Concert to be given at the Albany High School Auditorium on the evening of May 25, Cynthia has been selected to be a soloist.

ALBANY CHAPTER 530, OES, will hold a stated meeting Friday, May 18, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, 533 San Pablo Avenue.

It is necessary that people like Mrs. Wigginton attend the immediate meetings of the Planning and Zoning Commission because a request for spot zoning is already on file with the Commission. I fear that once this on-spot zoning is granted, numerous special interest groups will converge upon the Commission with a back log of spot zoning requests (like that of the pool house on Solano Avenue against which Mrs. Wigginton was protesting at last week's meeting). One man in his zeal for personal gain can destroy the Planning and Zoning
